It's (under) the (table).
1. What's the problem, Nick?
   My pet mouse isn't in the cage.

2. Where is it?
   I don't know.

3. Is it on the bookcase?
   No! Look! It's on the floor!
   Quick! Close the door!

4. Where's my mouse now?
   Sophie, look behind the plant.
   It's not here.

5. Suddenly ...
   AARGH!
   Listen!
   Who's that?

6. That's Mike! Where is he?
   He's in his bedroom.
   Let's go!

7. Help! It's your mouse. It's under the table!
   Oh, Mike!

Where's the (mouse)? It's (under) the (table).
1 Listen, point and repeat.

2 Listen and sing.

Where’s my mouse?

There’s a mouse in the house.
Where can it be?
Is it in the kitchen?
I can’t see.
Is it next to the cooker?
Or is it on the fridge?

Where’s my mouse? Is it in the house?
Where’s my mouse? Is it in the house?

There’s a mouse in the house.
Where can it be?
Is it in the living room
Under the TV?
Or is it on the sofa?
Or next to the phone?

Where’s my mouse? Look! It’s over there.
There’s my mouse! It’s next to the chair!

3 The lamp is on the table in the living room.
4 The bin is in the kitchen next to the chair.
5 The plant is on the TV.
6 The radio is next to the cooker.

Sounds English

Lola is on the sofa next to the phone.
Butch is on the bookcase next to the cookbook.
1 Answer the question. Then listen, read and check.

Look at the photos. Where are the houses? Guess.

People in different countries have different houses.

In the Arctic some hunters live in igloos. The igloos are made of snow. They’ve got one room inside. They haven’t got windows.

In the Amazon some people live in houses on stilts. The houses are made of wood and leaves. They’ve got different rooms inside. They’ve got windows.

In Africa some Masai people live in huts. The huts are made of wood, mud and grass. They’ve got one room inside. They haven’t got windows.

2 Read and listen again. Say Amazon, Arctic or Africa.

1 The houses have got one room.
2 The houses have got rooms.
3 The houses are made of natural materials.
4 The houses are made of plants.

Explore the Internet with your teacher.
Have Berber houses in Morocco got big windows or small windows?
Sanjay

Grace and I are at the top of the castle.

Sanjay explores

Here’s the Great Hall. It’s very big. There are lots of lamps and there are chairs and a sofa. You can see suits of armour on the walls too.

A good explorer

… is polite.
Open doors for other people!
Look at Sanjay’s page again and find. Say the number.

a a bed and a fireplace
b a bed and lamps
c the castle
d a sofa

Listen and repeat. Then practise.

Let’s talk!

Where’s the toilet?
It’s downstairs.

Where’s the kitchen?
It’s upstairs.

Now do the Explorer’s review.
