

1 Your Sense of Sight

← Pages 4–5

1 Write the words.

1 p h o t o

2

3

4

5

6

2 Write true or false.

- 1 Your sense of sight lets you see people and objects around you. true
- 2 Your sense of sight lets you listen to music. _____
- 3 Your sense of sight lets you watch television. _____
- 4 Your sense of sight helps to keep you safe. _____
- 5 You can see because your ears detect light. _____
- 6 You can see when there's no light. _____
- 7 You can see when it's not dark. _____
- 8 White light contains all the colors of the rainbow. _____

2 A Closer Look

← Pages 6–7

1 Draw an eye. Then write the words next to the five parts of the eye.

eyelashes eyelid iris pupil sclera

2 Match. Then write sentences.

Light reflects off
Light enters the eye
The lens focuses the light
The retina has
The optic nerve
Then the optic nerve takes on the retina.

an object.
collects the information.
millions of optic cells.
and goes through a lens.
the information to the brain.

- 1 Light reflects off an object.
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____
- 5 _____
- 6 _____